1. Individual membership is granted subject to the conditions laid down by the constitution and bye-laws of the Wado-Ryu Karate-Do Federation.
2. Individual membership is renewable annually from the date of issue.
3. Any current members of the Federation will be permitted to grade, compete or attend federation courses.
4. Your individual membership is not transferable.
5. If the conduct of any individual member shall in the opinion of the Chief Instructor be injurious to the character and interests of the Federation, he shall be empowered to withdraw the membership of such an individual member.
6. The licence remains the property of the Federation and may be withdrawn at any time. It should not be tampered with or passed to any unauthorised person. Any case of loss or destruction should be immediately reported to the Federation.
